

Publication: The Quincy Whig; Date: May 17, 1894; Section: Front page; Page: 1

Licensed to Wed.

Benjamin F. Purcell, of Kirksville, Mo., aged 27, and Dora Smith, of Quincy, 26.

Henry Strothoff, of Quincy, over 21, and Matilda Long, of Quincy, over 18.

George E. Swarthout, of San Bernardino, Cal., aged 24, and Katie C. Meehan, of Quincy, 23.

Jacob Requet, of Quincy, aged 28, and Julia Reskenpleck, of Quincy, 24.

Edward Heidbreder, of Eubanks, aged 24, and Mary Dirks, of Coatsburg, 24.

John A. Taylor, of Ursa, aged 27, and Ephie Gallamore, of Ursa, 18.

Herman Huber, of Quincy, aged 27, and Lizzie Lohmann, of Quincy, 20.

William E. West, of Quincy, aged 20, and Mary M. Vancil, of Quincy, 16.

William R. Courtney, of Urbana, Ill., aged 32, and Hettie J. Wilson, of Lorraine, 25.

William E. Fletcher, of Lima, aged 28, and Millie Vinson, of Lima, 27.

Philip R. Meyer, of Quincy, aged 26, and Louisa D. Brand, of Quincy, 25.

John Ludwig, of Quincy, aged 26, and Mary Schmitt, of Quincy, 23.

John Harrison, of La Grange, Mo., aged 24, and Ella Douglas, of Quincy, 18.